

Pipeline

Refers to the process and workflow involved in creating stop motion animation, from conceptualization to the final product.

Throughout the pipeline, coordination among various departments — such as animation, set design, lighting, camera operation— is crucial to ensure consistency and quality in the final animation.

