

Pre-production

Initial phase of the filmmaking process where the groundwork for the project is laid out. It involves all the planning and preparation necessary before the actual filming and animation takes place.

This process includes the following steps:

- Scriptwriting
- Concept Development
- Storyboard
- Animatic
- Planning

Script

Written document that outlines the dialogue, actions, settings, and overall structure of a narrative.

